

7:30 pm 14th June, 2023

Husborne Crawley Reading Room is pleased to announce another
'Wine and Words on Wednesdays'

A series of talks given by local people on a diverse range of interests

Mike Chapman - Public Speaker for the CWGC

Mike is a volunteer speaker, tour guide and volunteer for the CWGC. The EOHO role involves caring for 50 First World War and Second World War graves across 7 cemeteries and churchyards between Bletchley and Buckingham. He is also a volunteer tour guide and veteran interviewer for the Bletchley Park codebreaking museum.

Part 1 - The History and Operation of the Commonwealth War Graves Commission (CWGC) Since 1917 through to the present day

Part 2 - The stories of the Local Casualties from Husborne Crawley and the Surrounding Area

email: info@hcrr.space
www.hcrr.space

Entrance is free and includes a glass of wine and other refreshments
Please feel free to bring and share a bottle of your favourite too